PETROGRAD ASSERTS THAT TEUTONIC SUCCESSES IN GALICIA HAVE BEEN PAID FOR WITH A FEARFUL PRICE

(Associated Press)

London, May 21.—Dispatches today indicate that Italy has not yet taken the final plunge into war with Austria. Yesterday, the Italian parliament gave the government full power to act. Since then there is no news of decisive development. The censorship appears tight in Rome. A Geneva dispatch says Italy may send an ultimatum to Austria today, that a declaration of war may come before SHARP COMPETITION IN EVI- ANOTHER HANDSOME BOAT the end of the week.
